Onetrack Smart Band

SKU: GLBEATSQUAREP

Your daily well-being at your fingertips

Quick calls in a single touch

With the one-tap calling feature, you can answer directly from the smart band's touch screen. Whether you are in the office or walking, there's no need to rummage for your smartphone: simply tap to talk. The built-in microphone ensures every call is clear and in sync.

Real-time wellness monitoring

Thanks to the active heart rate monitor, you can keep an eye on your health every day. Whether you're working out or just walking, the OneTrack will measure your heart rate accurately, helping you to better understand your level of physical activity and well-being.

Reliable even under stress

Built to last, OneTrack is water and dust resistant (IP66), perfect for sports, hiking or simply for everyday life. The battery can last for up to 6 days on a single charge: take it with you everywhere, with no interruptions.
