

Hat with wireless earphones, braids and pom poms

SKU: TEWOOLBRAIDG

Cap with integrated stereo wireless earphones featuring buttons to manage music, answer/end calls, and integrated microphone

A typical Peruvian hat with braids and pom poms, which has been enhanced with a technological spirit: the integrated wireless earphones allow you to listen to music and respond to calls - even at the coldest time of the year.

This winter hat is practical and functional: it features earmuffs and fun braids complete with pom poms. The carefully finished stitching underlines the attention to detail and durability of the product. Made using soft and comfortable materials , it will keep you warm during your outdoor winter activities.

Within this winter hat, you will find wireless stereo earphones which can be removed to clean* the hat . Using the tag to the left of the hat, you can manage the buttons that allow you to control your music, accept or reject incoming calls, and redial the last number. The integrated microphone makes it possible to speak with callers.

With just one charge, these earphones can be used for up to 4 hours . Once they have been removed, you can charge them using a USB-Micro USB cable, included in the package.
