Track Cube – Water-resistant fitness tracker with heart rate monitoring

SKU: GLBEATRUGGK

The perfect sports watch for outdoor activities: track your workouts, monitor your sleep, make calls with one tap and much more!

MONITOR YOUR HEALTH AND TRACK YOUR WORKOUTS

The Track Cube Go Life fitness tracker monitors your heart rate, steps, distance travelled, calories burned and sleep quality. Its multi-sport mode lets you follow your progress during workouts and outdoor activities while recording the key data from each training session. Download the Go Life app, compatible with iOS 12 and later and Android 7 and later, to access all the features of this smartwatch.

ONE-TOUCH CALLS AND A 2.01-INCH FULL-TOUCH DISPLAY

The 2.01-inch full-touch display makes it easy to view information and access functions. Thanks to the one-tap calling function, you can manage phone calls with a single tap, while call and message notifications keep you updated even when your smartphone is not within reach. You can also use this sports watch as an alarm clock or as a remote control for your smartphone camera: simply tap on your Track Cube to take a photo. This makes the fitness tracker an ideal accessory for both everyday use and sports.

UP TO 7 DAYS OF BATTERY LIFE AND IP67 RESISTANCE

The rechargeable battery provides up to 7 days of use and up to 15 days on standby, with a full charge taking approximately 2 hours. Its IP67-rated resistance to water and dust makes the Track Cube the perfect solution for outdoor enthusiasts who enjoy activities such as climbing, trekking, running and cycling.
