Wireless speaker in the shape of a piglet

SKU: MHSPEAKPIG

Listen to music and make calls with this cute speaker

Fun is guaranteed with the piggy speaker

This pig-shaped wireless speaker of 3 watts, with its pointed ears and cute snout, is more than just an audio device. The speaker pig is so cute that it will become the focal point of any party. Imagine your friends' faces when they see this little piggy 'singing' your favourite songs. If you want to add a touch of fun to your daily life and a speaker that will make everyone laugh, look no further. Connect your smartphone, tablet or laptop to listen to music, stream a movie, or make a wireless call. This speaker gives you up to 3 hours of audio playback even 10 metres away from the connected device, so you can move around freely. When the power is empty, use the USB-A - USB-C cable included to power it up again.

Compact, soft and... cuddly

This wireless speaker in the shape of a piglet is small in size, allowing it to be carried anywhere in a bag or backpack. It is also covered in soft silicone that feels great to the touch: stroke it like a real piglet.

Control music directly from the speaker

On top of the wireless speaker you will find buttons for volume control and track change. This means you can control your music without ever having to interact with the connected device.
