Compact, powerful, and ready for adventure: charge your devices and shine light on any situation!

5000 mAh power bank with built-in LED torch for outdoor use

The 5000 mAh Power Bank from the Wild Gear collection is the perfect accessory for people who love to travel, camp or take part in outdoor activities. It combines a portable power bank and an LED torch in a single product: ideal for hiking, trekking, emergencies and everyday use.

Pocket-sized format: a practical choice to carry with you

Thanks to its extra-compact design and pocket-sized format, you can take it with you everywhere: in your rucksack, in your pocket or in the car. It is designed as a true outdoor tool: lightweight, practical and ready to use.

Fast and universal charging with USB-C Input/Output

The USB-C Input/Output port can be used to both charge the power bank and power your devices. The output offers up to 10 W, ensuring efficient charging for smartphones, earphones, speakers, GPS devices and many other accessories.

Included USB-C cable with lanyard function

Inside the package, you will find the included USB-C cable with a convenient lanyard function, ideal for hanging, carrying or securing the power bank during outdoor activities. A practical detail that makes it even more versatile.

LED charge indicator: instant clarity

The built-in LED indicator allows you to quickly check the remaining charge level, so you always know when it's time to recharge the power bank and never run out of power on the go.

Perfect for camping, travel and emergency situations

Whether you are in a tent, in the mountains, on a trip or simply at home, the power bank with torch is a useful ally. It provides light when needed and a power reserve for your devices, making it an ideal accessory for camping, trekking, hiking and emergencies.
