

Ultra-strong screen protector for Samsung S25 Edge with D3O technology

SKU: TED3OSCRGLSAS25E

Here are all the benefits of the D3O material screen protector for your Samsung

THE ADVANTAGES OF THE D3O SCREEN PROTECTOR: THE GUIDE TO ULTRA-STRONG PROTECTION

Choosing this screen protector with D3O technology for your Samsung S25 Edge ensures optimal protection against scratches and knocks. The innovative material used in this screen protector greatly reduces the risk of damage to your smartphone screen. This guide will show you all the benefits of a resistant yet discreet screen protector.

D3O INNOVATION FOR SUPERIOR PROTECTION: HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

D3O technology represents a major advance in screen protection. This protective glass, while being thin and almost invisible, offers exceptional impact resistance. Thanks to its ability to absorb and dissipate impact energy, it minimises the risk of damage to the display. After impact, the material returns to its original state, guaranteeing long-lasting protection.

D3O CERTIFICATION: GUARANTEE OF MAXIMUM PROTECTION

The D3O certification is not only an important indicator of quality, but also ensures that the screen protector has been created to withstand strong impacts, effectively protecting your iPhone's display from accidental drops and knocks.

THIN AND TOUGH SCREEN PROTECTOR: TAKES ADVANTAGE OF THE DISPLAY

Thanks to the D3O material that replaces traditional screen protectors, this screen protector offers almost invisible protection without altering the design or touch sensitivity of the screen. Despite the excellent protection provided, the screen protector is distinguished by its thinness and allows unblocking via facial recognition.

WHAT DISTINGUISHES THIS PROTECTIVE GLASS:

- D3O technology: advanced, impact-resistant material that maximises screen protection
- Transparent, thin and almost invisible screen protector
- Easy to apply without leaving bubbles
- Compatible with touch functionality and facial recognition
