TWS pocket-sized earphones with charging case

SKU: TEEARTWSBLADEBTW

Comfortable to use and carry, Nu Blades are the ideal solution for music and calls

The headset has a pocket-size design and recharges earphones without the need for wires

The Nu Blade earphones have a modern and functional design, specifically designed to give you maximum comfort. In fact, the recharging case has an elongated design precisely to make it completely portable. This way, you don't necessarily have to have a handbag or backpack to transport it. The earphones fit securely by simply sliding them slightly into the appropriate slots. This headset recharges the earphones in one hour wherever you are and without the need for wires, extending the headset battery life by as much as fourfold. When the case also runs out of power, you can recharge it via the USB-A to USB-C cable included.

Totally wireless: move in complete freedom

They connect to your smartphone, tablet or laptop wirelessly and, after the first time they pair, will do so automatically as soon as they're switched on. Even ten metres away from the device, the signal remains stable, giving you maximum freedom of movement. The True Wireless Stereo (TWS) technology also ensures that the earphones are connected to each other instantly.

Microphone and multifunction keys: all you need to make calls in total comfort

Nu Blades are also perfect for making calls , recording voice notes, participating in calls or following webinars thanks to the integrated microphone. You don't even have to take your smartphone out of your pocket to answer a call, end a call, return a call or dial the last number: you can do so with a touch on the earpiece thanks to the integrated touch keys. These commands also allow you to play/pause a track, change tracks or activate the voice assistant.
