

Wireless keyboard with cover for iPad 10.9" and iPad 11"

SKU: TABOOKPRO11KBOARD

The wireless keyboard with integrated cover stand designed for your iPad

Turn your iPad into a laptop without needing wires

If you want to work, write and play on your own 10.9-inch or 11-inch iPad comfortably, this wireless keyboard is exactly what you're looking for. It connects to your iPad wireless and ensures up to 44 hours of use! Ideal for prolonged daily use. When it downloads, you'll be able to upload it through the USB-A - USB-C cable included: in approx 2 hours it will be ready for use again. The 10 m operating range also allows for remote use.

It has an integrated cover with stand function and Stylus pen holder

Would you like your iPad to be protected from accidental bumps and scratches? The wireless keyboard has a built-in cover that perfectly fits your iPad ensuring optimal protection. Using the magnetic closure, you'll be able to close the case like a book: the device will be protected from all angles. The side buttons and the charging socket will be left free to ensure normal operation and usability. The practical backrest also supports the iPad by keeping it horizontal in front of you. If you own a Stylus pen you can store it in the dedicated space which you will find at the top of the cover.

The touchpad makes it even more practical

The keyboard is equipped with a touchpad with two push buttons like in a real laptop! Move the cursor easily on your writing software. Furthermore, if your iPad is the iOS 13 version or later, you can take advantage of many functions very intuitively and comfortably, directly from the touchpad.

Ultra-light and compact: easily take it anywhere

If you want to use your iPad comfortably even on the bus, train or plane, the wireless keyboard is only 0.5cm thick which will allow you to store it in a backpack or bag. Your device will always be protected and ready to use in any situation.
