

Unbreakable cover for iPhone XS Max

SKU: TECOVUNBKIP65K

Ultra-resistant case from the Unbreakable Line with screen protector for iPhone XS Max, in black

The ultra-resistant cover from the Unbreakable Line for the iPhone XS Max guarantees exceptional protection for your device.

This particular case has passed intensive drop tests (impact tests), simulated falls from a height of 4 metres, thanks to its three distinguishing components.

In fact, inside the cover there are two protective layers with the addition of a transparent screen that allows you to use the touch functions on your smartphone display.

The case is made of a double material that allows higher absorption of vibrations caused by impacts, offering greater protection than a standard cover.

Maximum protection on one side, great practicality on the other: the Unbreakable cover will allow easy access to all keys and connectors on your device.

Protect your smartphone from scratches, impacts and dirt without giving up an accessory with a modern style.

Features:

- 2 protective layers
- Transparent touchscreen protector
- Resistant to impacts, dirt and scratches
- Double material to absorb vibrations
