

Studio Mix 99 wired stereo headphones

SKU: TEINEARMIX99K

Semi-open in-ear headphones with a flat cable, 3.5 mm jack and built-in microphone

The Studio Mix 99 stereo headphones are a practical solution for answering calls or listening to music. Find out how convenient the flat cable is when using the headphones or folding them away.

These accessories are supplied with a 3.5 mm universal jack that plugs into your smartphone. You can happily listen to your favourite songs or answer calls via the built-in microphone. Let a full, immersive sound surround you.

The flat cable is tangle-free: it can easily be put away and won't annoy you by tangling, even when the headphones are being worn.

The Studio Mix 99 are semi-open in-ear headphones: a winning compromise in terms of comfort. The headphones slightly protrude from the ear in order to prevent discomfort during prolonged use.
