

Winter touch-screen gloves size L

SKU: TEWINTERGL19LK

Winter touch-screen gloves size L, black colour

These winter touch-screen gloves are an essential item for using your smartphone during winter. Keep warm and use your device's display without removing your gloves.

Made using a soft and comfortable acrylic material, these convenient accessories will keep your hands nice and warm. The carefully finished seams are a testament to the durability and resilience of these gloves. The cuff is especially long, to ensure better insulation.

The inductive fabric on the thumb, index finger and middle finger allows you to use all of the functions of your screen however you want. Chatting, making calls, browsing the web, and using various apps is both quick and easy. These gloves are also perfect for e-readers and tablets. They can be washed without losing their capacitive function.

Don't fear the outdoors this winter: these gloves are the perfect gift for anyone who can't do without their smartphone or other touch-screen devices.
