

Swing wireless stereo earphones

SKU: TEJZEARSWING2BTK

V.5.0 wireless stereo earphones with metallic finish, magnetic closure, silicone headband and multi-function buttons

SWING, THE RYTHM YOU'RE LOOKING FOR

Heady notes with irresistible rhythm: here is the secret of Swing , the wireless earphones which will accompany the most enjoyable hours of your day with their enveloping mood.

AN ELEGANT DANCE AND WITH NO BRAKES

The earphones' sound is enveloped in marvellous material elegance , the perfect combination for delighting in immortal Swing songs like Glenn Miller's In The Mood.

The refined metal finish is functional for listening: this material causes the effects of vibrations to be amortized. Furthermore, the silicon ear pads prevent external noise from interfering with your playlist or your call.

Choose the right ear pads to unleash your energy: inside the pack there are 3 pairs of pads (sizes S-M-L).

MUSIC THAT INNOVATES

Like the genre from which it takes its name, Swing is an innovative product. The Wireless Technology V5.0 which characterizes these earphones guarantees high performance and low power consumption. In fact, the battery can last up to 6 hours with continuous use of the product.

Once you have paired these stereo earphones with your smartphone, you can immerse yourself in your favourite music or answer calls through the integrated microphone. . All this is thanks to the refined and minimal style multi-function keys positioned on the controller.

Put the earphones on, too, when you need to pause your favourite songs: thanks to the magnetic closure you can wear them around your neck without removing them.

CHARGING THE SWING EARPHONES

The Swing earphones are recharged via the Micro USB input located on the controller: inside the box you will find a cable for power supply with USB-Micro USB connectors. The right amount of charge after an unforgettable concert.
